-Mr. T. D. Harris offers in this issue quite a lot of property, and we learn that it is his intention to dispose of his holdings here and become a citizen of Spartanburg, We hope Mr. Harris does not contemplate this move, for Pickens needs all of ever. her citizens.

-The Pickens City Council has very kindly granted the Woman's Department of the Fair the sole right to sell lemonade Fair week. You will find this refreshing drink at the tent on the Court House grounds. Patronize this tent and help defray the expenses of the Woman's department.

Rev. C. L. Fowler, of Clinton, S. C., closed last Tuesday night, at the Pickens Baptist church, a very successful tendays meeting. Large congregalasting good was accomplished by this laborer in the Lord's vinevard.

Souvenir programs of the fair are being gotten out by Jere B. McMahan, private secretary to Hon. George S. Legare, which will be distributed, free, the first day of the fair. It will be worth getting, and preserving, so be on hand the first day and get one before the supply is exhausted. It will be the only program gotten out, used or given away.
